AUTOMOBILE PARADE WEDNESDAY.

Everybody With a Horseless Fly-er Invited To Participate In The Festivities.

PRIZES FOR DECORATED CARS.

The weather is swinging back to normal conditions slowly and the ocean took presented an animated scene all the way from Ormond to Ponce Park yesterday as people are visiting the beach, there being a continuous rumble over Dayton's three bridges as the throng looks their way seaward by means of carriage and motor car.

The game which were arranged for yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock did not take place. Some minor accidents early in the day to a couple of the cars, noted in particulars, prevented their being on time, and you know the old saying that "time and tide wait for no man." There was a striking exemplification of this old saying yesterday for no ride soon rendered racing out of the question. A steady, stiff north wind for a time was always given high water. Would you like to know why?

Well, it is a comparatively short distance out in the Gulf stream, that huge warm river of water hundreds of feet deep, miles wide, plowing its way right through the turbulent Atlantic. A stiff north wind strikes under these current the north and you can imagine the result of these two currents meeting—they naturally pile up. This is just what happens and if a wind were to blow hard enough and long enough some folks on the shores of the Halifax, if not the Atlantic, might find boating annoyingly inconvenient.

A south to southwest wind has exactly the reverse effect, and the second day of such wind you can ride on the beach high tide.

The races were postponed from yesterday at 4 o'clock to 10 o'clock this morning. It is expected by this race to write some local speculation as to the speed of certain machines.

W. J. Morgan leaves New York tomorrow, and is expected here Saturday. The "Mercedes" will make his headquarters at The Prince George. With this motor quiet on the grounds to persecute Direct, racing events will speedily assume definiteness.

The clever landlords of the Daytona hostelries will certainly do the handsome with the foreign press representatives. The Prince George, Ridgewood, Seminole, Dunland and Colonnades, the latter at Seabreeze, will each take two press representatives as guests, free.

Chairman White of the Racing Committee, has arranged for the parade on Wednesday next. The arrangement is to start from the City Hall, on Beach street, at 9 a. m.

It is earnestly desired that everybody having automobiles join in this parade. Let there be good natured rivalry in an effort to make your neighbor in decorating your car.

The Daytona Daily News, Loomis the Chronographer, and the F. E. C. A. A. each offer a trophy for the first, second and third best decorated automobiles.

If you will take part in the parade

ARRESTED FOR BIRD SLAUGHTER.

Innocent, Confiding Pelicans Fall Victims To Deadly Fire Of Cruel Gunners.

DUPONT BOYS GET IN BAD.

Yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock Game Warden R. J. Pacetti, of Ponce Park, and C. L. Slayton, of Parkersburg, W. Va., were on South Peach, just below Mosquito Inlet. They had noticed a launch, the Una, pass headed North. A little later they heard shots and looking up saw the flock of gentle, trusting pelicans which have become so tame from being undisturbed, flying in all directions, fleeing for their lives. Alas! it was too late for some of them, for the Dupont boys, John and Julien, of St. Augustine, had fired deadly loads of shot into the flock, killing outright as well as maiming others.

Warden Pacetti and his companion, Mr. Slayton, made for their launch as quickly as possible and put out in pursuit, but the Una by this time had such lead that they were unable to overhaul the destroyers of the innocents between the Inlet and Daytona.

Arriving here they tied up their boat and, being joined by Justice H. T. Titus, they embarked in an automobile and went post-haste to the Ormond bridge draw in time to overhaul the boys. They confessed to the sport(?) of having killed the birds and were brought back to this city where they were given a preliminary hearing before Justice Titus on the charge of killing pelicans, a bird protected by the laws of Florida.

They were bound over to appear before the Criminal Court of Record, and when this court disposes of them there is every likelihood that Uncle Sam will take them in hand as they shot in the very face of big government warning boards, notifying them that all birds within this reservation (with a few exception) were protected.

There is the greatest indignation felt at Daytona and elsewhere in this section as these birds were becoming quite confiding and trusted strangers to approach very near them. They were a drawing card for visitors and this treacherous onslaught will make them wild again for months to come.

Warden Pacetti and Mr. Slayton deserve great credit for putting their pursuit up persistently and bringing the culprits to justice. They have probably left death and destruction in their wake all the way from Palm Beach, whence they came, and would have continued their deadly fire on to St. Augustine.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

—Kotten in New York World.

BURIED IN PINEWOOD.

The remains of Mrs Rebecca H. Garland arrived from New York Tuesday accompanied by Miss O. E. Garland and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Garland, of Los Angeles, Cal., who joined Miss Garland at Jacksonville.

The party arrived by the 11:49 a. m. train, which was forty minutes late, but as they were not expected until 1:45 p. m., and all arrangements had been made for that time, no change was made and the funeral cortege left the railroad depot shortly after the arrival of that train and proceeded to Pinewood cemetery where Mrs. Garland's husband, J. M. Garland, who died about two years ago, is buried.

The casket was opened to allow the relatives and friends a last view of the departed and Rev. D. H. Ratter, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, conducted a brief burial service.

TO BE GUESTS OF MRS. STARR

Doctor Reades Fayerweather, of Johns Hopkins University, and Miss Josephine Kirby-Smith, daughter of General Kirby-Smith of distinguished war record, are announced to marry tomorrow at Sewanee, Tennessee.

Doctor and Mrs. Fayerweather will come direct from Sewanee to Daytona, where they will be the distinguished guests during a honeymoon period, of Mrs. C. E. Starr, on the peninsula.

General Kirby-Smith was stationed at St. Augustine for some time during war times and Mrs. Fayerweather will visit the historic scenes over which her father once had command.

A WEARING OF THE GREEN.

Green is much in evidence on this, St. Patrick's Day, ladies as well as gentlemen vieing with one another in respect to St. Patrick. Contrary to expectations the norther took a fresh start this morning, making it feel more like the St. Patrick's Day most of you are accustomed to.

The day is fittingly observed by many from the Emerald Isle as well as their descendants and by their friends.

Leon D. Crews, of Tomoka, departed by train from this city today for Dania, where he has four acres planted in tomatoes and doing finely.

OFFICIALS ON ROAD INSPECTION.

Will Accept Cannon's Work On DeLand-Daytona Road And Pay For It.

BETTER ROADS ARE COMING.

Dr. G. W. Fisher DeLand; J. H. Cude, Enterprise; R. D. Brooke, Osteen, three of the five members of the Board of County Commissioners of Volusia county, were in the city Tuesday, having come over on an official inspection of the DeLand-Daytona road. They report the road in good condition, and announced their intention of accepting it. The other two commissioners, Messrs. Bradshaw and Owen have been over the road.

It is very doubtful whether Contractor Cannon broke even on his road contract.

It is a road which has cost a ruling of money to get where it is, but it is thought now that it is to such shape as to be more easily maintained in the future. Its present good condition demonstrates its value both to Daytona and to DeLand, and it seems one thing—the road is a fixture as a hard-surface thoroughfare.

The Commissioners expressed their appreciation of hard-surface extension, and it safe to say that just for the depleted condition of the road fund this sort of road building would be pushed in several directions.

In an interview with the Commissioners, Chairman Fisher said it is up to Commissioner Owen to put the road in the Brevard county line in passable condition, and as Mr Owen is in hearty sympathy with the good road move, and it is a safe prediction that there will be something doing in Mr. Owens' bailiwick this spring and summer.

The Commissioners told they hope to see the road extended on to the north to the St. Johns county line to connect the proposed hard surface road which John Anderson, of The Alcazar, St. Augustine, is working for so enthusiastically. Mr. Anderson will never rest until all three gaps will be filled, and motor cars can pass quickly back and forth from St. Augustine to Daytona.

Hankins says:

Another nice assortment of high grade sponges and chamois came recently. Come in and get yours before the best ones are picked up. Nothing like a good sponge for the bath.

HANKINS, The Druggist,
AT THE PLAGE
Where Volusia Meets Beach.

PLAYED TO CROWDED TENT.

The Lyceum Comedy Company gave their opening performance, "The Tramp and the Lady," last night to a crowded tent, even the available standing room being used, which speaks well for this attraction, for although the weather was clear, the night was rather cold for this season of the year.

The play was well received, Mr. Evans Linnell in the part of the tramp being a particularly strong character. The specialties were good and the illustrated song pictures were excellent. Tonight they will play "Kit Carson," tomorrow night "Lost Lynn," while other performances will be announced later. There will also be a Saturday matinee. Don't fail to attend, as the plays are clean and you will get your money's worth.

PROTECT THE ROOKERIES.

Warden Pacetti requests the Daily News to say that as the breeding season for pelicans is now approaching it is best to stop visits to Pelican Island, an island much resorted to by this bird near the Fort Orange bridge. It is also asked that you erase your visits to those islands between New Smyrna and Hawks Park, used by these birds.

With the proper protection and encouragement these birds will become numerous and trusting, and afford visitors from the North much pleasure.

Is Claimed by Death.

Mrs. Cora M. Service died yesterday at the Daytona Hospital where she had recently been brought in the hope of restoring her to health. Mr. and Mrs. Service had been south about three weeks but they postponed coming too long. Every method known to medical science was employed to save the patient but they proved to be of no avail.

She was taken seriously ill about a week after reaching Daytona and was then taken to the hospital.

Mr and Mrs Service were from Newton, N. Y. She leaves a husband, one sister and numerous relatives in New York state.

Mr. Service left Daytona today for Hamilton, Va., where the interment will take place.

J. T. Long, who was called to Crescent City last week by the fatal illness of his mother, returned to Daytona Tuesday. His brother, Frank Long and wife did not accompany him, but will remain with Mr. Long's father probably for several days.

SOME NOTED RACERS ON BEACH.

Bicycle and Motorcycle Events Promise To Attract World-wide Attention.

A LIST OF THE BIG EVENTS.

An interesting feature of the races on the Ocean beach next week will be the bicycle and motorcycle events, which seem to have created more than usual interest with the sportsmen of this class, several noted riders already being here while quite a number now at Atlanta and Jacksonville will reach here in time for the races.

Joseph Fogler, Fred Hill and Eugene Gaestel are now in this city, located at The Wilmer, on South Palmetto avenue. Messrs. Gaestel and Hill both N. S. U. men, will take part in all the motorcycle races, the former in the amateur and the latter in the professional events, and no effort will be made to break the record of 44 2-5 seconds, made by Wm. Ray on the beach last season. Mr. Hill, who has only been in training for a short period, finished third in the New York six-day race.

Joseph Fogler and Eddie Root were winners in the six-day event at Kansas City Feb. 1st to 7th. Mr. Root is now in Jacksonville but will probably be here in a few days, as Mr. Fogle has written him to come at once for a try-out on the beach, which is in fine condition.

Among those now racing in Atlanta and who will probably be here the forepart of the week, are Dave Maxley, Worthington Minor, Walter Bedigrt, George Cameron, George Wiley, Saxon Williams, Elmer Collins, Wm. Senebaum and Elmer Walker the two last named being Australians. There will likely be in all twelve or fifteen participants.

The full list of these events is as follows:

One mile handicap.
One-half-mile handicap.
One-fourth mile dash.
One-half mile dash.
One mile open race.
Two mile open race.

The time trials will consist of one mile behind motor-cycle pace and one mile behind automobile pace, and Mr. Fogler expresses confidence that Charles Murphy's record of 57 2-5 seconds, made behind a railroad train, will be broken in these events.

NEW TARIFF BILL IS PRESENTED.

After Five Months Of Labor The Bouncing New Bill Is Born.

INHERITANCE TAX IS A FEATURE.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Congress received the new tariff bill today from Chairman Payne, whose name the bill bears. It is the product of five months' work by the committee, and contains 100,000 words. The estimated revenue under the tariff duties prescribed amount to $300,000,000, an increase of $10,000,000 over the Dingley bill.

A striking feature of the new bill is the inheritance tax—$10,000 to $100,000 is taxed at one per cent; $100,000 to $500,000, two per cent; over $500,000, three per cent. Collateral beneficiaries drive five per cent on all amounts over $500,000.

The bill authorizes the issue of treasury certificates to the amount of $250,000,000 to run one year.

Coffee stays on the free list; there is no increase in beer tax. Eight cents a pound is levied on tea from countries where produced, and nine cents from other countries. Lumber is reduced fifty per cent, also steel rails and steel products. Coal is placed on a reciprocal basis with countries admitting steamship coal free. Wool of first and second class is unchanged. A reduction of five cents per pound is made on refined sugar. Iron ore is on the free list; hides come free; shoes are reduced forty per cent; window glass is increased.

Payne said that with anything like normal conditions the nation's deficit will be entirely wiped out; if not the bill provides for the issue of Panama Canal bonds for $40,000,000 to make up any probably deficiency.

It provides for reciprocal trade with the Philippines, including imports to sugar, tobacco and cigars.

Cuban reciprocity provisions are preserved.

Cigarettes are increased; perfumery, fancy soaps, toilet articles and cocoa are increased. Spices, feathers and furs are also increased.

The bill adds a new paragraph to the Customs Act fixing the basis of appraisement at not less than the wholesale price on the market. This basis is expected to result in an enormous increase of revenue.

Printing paper is reduced 50 to 66 per cent. Wood pulp will be admitted free from all countries where no export duty is levied.

The bill compels foreigners obtaining patents here to build factories and manufacture here for our trade.

MRS. C. H. MACKAY, WHO LEADS SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT.

Woman suffrage has no more active or ardent supporter in the United States than Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay. She took up the movement about a year ago and has worked diligently, devoting large sums of money to the cause ever since. Her vast wealth and her influence in society make her a potent factor in the fight to obtain recognition for the cause from men in high political authority.

Ray on the beach last season. Mr. Hill, who has only been in training for a short period, finished third in the New York six-day race.

Joseph Fogler and Eddie Root were winners in the six-day event at Kansas City Feb. 1st to 7th. Mr. Root is now in Jacksonville but will probably be here in a few days, as Mr. Fogle has written him to come at once for a try-out on the beach, which is in fine condition.

Among those now racing in Atlanta and who will probably be here the forepart of the week, are Dave Mackay, Worthington Mitten, Walter Bardgett, George Cameron, George Wiley, Saxon Williams, Elmer Collins, Wm. Senshouse and Elmer Walker, the two last named being Australians. There will likely be in all twelve or fifteen participants.

The full list of these events is as follows:

One mile handicap.
One-half-mile handicap.
One-fourth mile dash.
One-half mile dash.
One mile open race.
Two mile open race.

The time trials will consist of one mile behind motor-cycle pace and one mile behind automobile pace, and Mr. Fogler expresses confidence that Charles Murphy's record of 57 2-5 seconds, made behind a railroad train, will be broken in these events.

NEW TARIFF BILL IS PRESENTED.

After Five Months Of Labor The Bouncing New Bill Is Born.

INHERITANCE TAX IS A FEATURE.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Congress received the new tariff bill today from Chairman Payne, whose name the bill bears. It is the product of five months' work by the committee, and contains 100,000 words. The estimated revenue under the tariff duties prescribed amount to $300,000,000, an increase of $10,000,000 over the Dingley bill.

A striking feature of the new bill is the inheritance tax—$10,000 to $100,000 is taxed at one per cent; $100,000 to $500,000, two per cent; over $500,000, three per cent. Collateral beneficiaries derive five per cent on all amounts over $500,000.

The bill authorizes the issue of treasury certificates to the amount of $250,000,000 to run one year.

Coffee stays on the free list; there is no increase in beer tax. Eight cents a pound is levied on tea from countries where produced, and nine cents from other countries. Lumber is reduced fifty per cent, also steel rails and steel products. Coal is placed on a reciprocal basis with countries admitting steamship coal free. Wool of first and second class is unchanged. A reduction of five cents per pound is made on refined sugar. Iron ore is on the free list; hides come free; shoes are reduced forty per cent; window glass is increased.

Payne said that with anything like normal conditions the nation's deficit will be entirely wiped out; if not the bill provides for the issue of Panama Canal bonds for $40,000,000 to make up any probably deficiency.

It provides for reciprocal trade with the Philippines, limiting imports to sugar, tobacco and cigars.

Cuban reciprocity provisions are preserved.

Cirgarettes are increased; perfumery, fancy soap, toilet articles and cocoa are increased. Spices, feathers and furs are also increased.

The bill adds a new paragraph to the Customs Act fixing the basis of appraisement at not less than the wholesale price on the market. This basis is expected to result in an enormous increase of revenue.

Printing paper is reduced 50 to 66 per cent. Wood pulp will be admitted free from all countries where no export duty is levied.

The bill compels foreigners obtaining patents here to build factories and manufacture here for our trade.

MRS. C. H. MACKAY, WHO LEADS SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT.

Woman suffrage has no more active or ardent supporter in the United States than Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay. She took up the movement about a year ago and has worked diligently, devoting large sums of money to the cause ever since. Her vast wealth and her influence in society make her a potent factor in the fight to obtain recognition for the cause from men in high political authority.

Some nothing has been done at the roughness of the roadway on S. Fourth street between First avenue and Fairview, but to any one who has ridden through the mud and water which formerly accumulated at that place after every shower of rain the slight unevenness is not worth mentioning. It is now one of the best sections of street in the city.

A Gallant Clergyman.

It is said that the Rev. Sydney Smith could be gallant as well as witty on occasion.

"Oh, Mr. Smith, I cannot bring this flower to perfection," said a young lady to him once as she showed him about her conservatory.

Whereupon he took her by the hand and said, "Then let me bring perfection to the flower."

A Gallant Clergyman.

It is said that the Rev. Sydney Smith could be gallant as well as witty on occasion.

"Oh, Mr. Smith, I cannot bring this flower to perfection," said a young lady to him once as she showed him about her conservatory.

Whereupon he took her by the hand and said, "Then let me bring perfection to the flower."

Foul or Fair Weather.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of water-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed p-lican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk-r-i-g-swung upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments to both solid an - liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your rod glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and so the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Sunbeams, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve- callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "sunbeams and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "good-bye" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard most of variegated hue predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of bell cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Ignorant, but Careful.

"Immersion nearly always makes Dods sick," said a lecturer. "I remember a man, ignorant of etiquette, who once sat beside me at a public dinner. I noticed that this man, as soon as he was seated, took up each fork by one the knives at the right of his plate and began to try their edges on his thumb. A waiter behind him leaned forward and said in a horrified tone:

"'The knives are all sharp, sir.'

"'The point is,' said my neighbor, 'I'm looking for a blunt one. Last time I attended a banquet here I cut my mouth.'"

An Obedient Tiger.

"How entire," remarks the London Globe, "is the confidence of the native East Indian in the government may be gathered from the following anecdote, which comes from Lahore. A tiger had escaped from the zoological gardens, and its keeper, hoping to lure it back, followed it. When all other indiscreets had failed, he lifted up his voice and solemnly adjured it in the name of the British government, to which it belonged, to come back to its cage. The tiger, it is needless to add, obeyed at once."

IT WAS A FINE COD.

A Little Story of William M. Chase, the Portrait Painter.

Several years ago I had a studio at Hammersmith and was hurrying into London one morning to transact some business. Just as I swung around a corner occupied by a fishmonger's market my eye was attracted to a magnificent cod stretched out for exhibition on a clean slab of white marble. Whatever my mood for color was that morning, that fish completely filled and flood it. I must paint it, I decided.

I called out the proprietor and told him what I wanted. I was a bachelor, I explained, and did not wait for my tea. I only wished the use of it as a model. Could I rent it?

"Oh, now, sir," he said, with true British cockney drawl, "I'll never rent no fish. You see, it's Saturday, too, sir, I'll must sell him today, sir."

However, I explained that I needed that fish for only a few hours, and directly we struck a bargain. If after two hours I still wished to keep the fish I should buy it. At the end of the stipulated time the boy came. I was not quite finished. "In a few minutes," I said, and when I looked up he was gone.

Shortly afterward the proprietor came, listening in and peeping over my shoulder. I could hear him softly sighing, and I said nervously, "Is a sport to be sold, sir, at the price?"

"Don't worry, sir; don't worry," he urged. "She's goodin' on! Will take my chances, sir!"

When the painting was finished he refused at first to accept any remuneration, but at length, with a muttered apology, he charged—a shilling. The painting was hung and shortly afterward purchased by the Corcoran Art gallery for a very substantial sum.

On my next trip to London I declined to call up my fishmonger, telling of the good fortune that had attended the painting and tender him some fitting reward. To my great surprise he not only refused again any sort of fee, but refused no surprise whatever at the figure the painting had brought, though the price paid represented several times over the investment of his shop.

"Ah, but it was a fine cod, sir!" he said, and his eyes glowed with pride. "Now, wasn't it?"—William M. Chase in Dollmotor.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Ignorant, but Careful.

"Ignorance nearly always makes fools of us," said a lecturer. "I remember a man, ignorant of etiquette, who once sat beside me at a public dinner. I noticed that this man, as soon as he was seated, took up one by one the knives at the right of his plate and began to try their edges on his thumb. A waiter behind him leaned forward and said in a hurt tone:

"'The knives are all sharp, sir.'

"'The point is,' said my neighbor. 'I'm looking for a blunt one. Last time I attended a banquet here I cut my mouth.'"

An Obedient Tiger.

"How entire," remarks the London Globe, "is the confidence of the native East Indian in the government may be gathered from the following anecdote, which comes from Lahore: A tiger had escaped from the zoological gardens, and its keeper, hoping to lure it back, followed it. When all other inducements had failed, he lifted up his voice and solemnly adjured it in the name of the British government, to which it belonged, to come back to its cage. The tiger, it is needless to add, obeyed at once."

IT WAS A FINE COD.

A Little Story of William M. Chase, the Portrait Painter.

Several years ago I had a studio at Hammersmith and was hurrying into London one morning to transact some business. Just as I swung around a corner occupied by a fishmonger's market my eye was attracted to a magnificent cod stretched out for exhibition on a clean slab of white marble. Whatever my mood for color was that morning, that fish completely fitted and filled it. I must paint it, I decided.

I called out the proprietor and told him what I wanted. I was a bachelor, I explained, and did not want to buy the big fish. I only wished the use of it as a model. Could I rent it?

"Ow, now, sir," he said, with true British stolidity. "Hi never rents my fish. You see, it's Saturday, too, sir. Hi must sell him today, sir."

However, I explained that I needed the fish for only a few hours, and directly we struck a bargain. If after two hours I still wished to keep the fish I should buy it. At the end of the stipulated time the boy came. I was not quite finished. "In a few minutes," I said, and when I looked up he was gone.

Shortly afterward the proprietor came, tiptoeing in and peeping over my shoulder. I could hear him softly sighing, and I said nervously, "In a few minutes now, in a few minutes."

"Don't 'urry, sir; don't 'urry," he urged. "She's gettin' on! Hi'll take my chances, sir!"

When the painting was finished he refused at first to accept any remuneration, but at length, with a muttered apology, he charged—a shilling! The painting was hung and shortly afterward purchased by the Corcoran Art gallery for a very substantial sum.

On my next trip to London I determined to call up my fishmonger, tell him of the good fortune that had attended the painting and tender him some fitting reward. To my great surprise he not only refused again any sort of fee, but evinced no surprise whatever at the figure the painting had brought, though the price paid represented several times over the investment of his shop.

"Ah, but it was a fine cod, sir!" he said, and his eyes glowed with pride. "Now, wasn't it?"—William M. Chase in Delineator.

SAMPSON IS INDICTED.

The Federal Grand Jury sitting at Jacksonville yesterday indicted John Sampson, the outlawed yeggman, on the charge of being implicated in the Daytona postoffice robbery.

BIG SUCCESS WAS BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Congregational church made a great success of their bazaar and supper which were held yesterday afternoon and evening. Their fancy articles were artistic and attractive and while the ladies did not sell out entirely they sold sufficient to raise quite a fund.

Their supper was pronounced by everybody to be both sumptuous and appetizing and those who ate say they enjoyed a rare treat.

The orange blossoms, flowers and homemade candies were in demand and helped to swell the funds. All in all the ladies may feel proud of their success.

Notwithstanding the various and varied amusements offered to the public this week the Gaiety Theatre is being well attended, owing largely to the appearance of that galaxy of the celebrated Pepper Twins. Those who have seen this act speak very highly of it, the dancing being particularly good.

Mrs. E. S. Rayner returned North today to visit with her daughter Inering Mr. Rayner, who dowded returning home so early to spend a longer time at The Fenwell, where they have been guests while in Daytona. Mr Rayner is a cousin of J. H. Rayner of Daytona Beach, and Mrs. W. B. Chittenden, of North Ridgewood avenue.

He Was Very Charitable.

Among the features of a charity bazaar held in London was a refreshment stall, to which charitable friends contributed supplies, thus enabling all the takings to represent clear profit. The lady in charge requested a gift for the purpose from a well known and wealthy gentleman in the city, but one not famous for "parting." To her surprise she received next day a note to the effect that he was sending her a sirloin of beef and two ox tongues.

The wise morning the lady herself to go to her benefactor who stood at the butcher of Mr. X.'s, and, after giving him a large order for her stall, asked him if he would like himself to give anything.

"I should very much, indeed," replied the worthy tradesman, "but I never buy goods for Mr. X. at his request for this purpose, a sirloin of beef and two ox tongues."

Not quite to Mr. X. One or two more and a cheap reputation for charity!—London Standard.

A Surprise For the Thief.

Herr Hauer, a rich and influential banker frequently had watches stolen from his pocket. At first he had recourse to all kinds of safety devices; then one morning he took so precautionary whatever and quietly allowed himself to be robbed. At night, on returning from his business, he took up the evening paper; he uttered an exclamation of delight. A watch had exploded in a man's hands. The victim's hands were shattered and the left eye destroyed. The crafty banker had filled the watch case with dynamite, which exploded in the operation of winding.—London Telegraph.

AUTOMOBILE PARADE WEDNESDAY.

send in your name to Chairman White and he will issue you a card, giving you place and number in the parade. This is important in order to systematize matters and prevent any hitch.

The parade ground has been mapped out as follows: From the City Hall they will move South on Beach to Bellevue, West on Bellevue to Ridgewood, North on Ridgewood to Fairview, East on Fairview to Beach; South on Beach to Volusia; West on Volusia to Palmetto, South on Palmetto to Orange; East on Orange to South Beach; North to Volusia; North by Peninsula drive to Seabreeze avenue; East on Seabreeze avenue to Grandview; North to Ocean boulevard, West on Ocean boulevard to Valley street, South on Valley street to Seabreeze avenue, thence to Automobile Club House by Peninsula Drive and Halifax avenue.

If everybody with automobiles responds to the invitation the parade will be one of the most imposing spectacles ever witnessed in this part of Florida. We will Florida like that better. It is to make a parade three to begin and night to give lots of soap and go to the big carnival.

DEATH IN ITS PATH.

By Carrie Bond.

MONTREAL, March 19.—A fast Toronto & Montreal train jumped the track at Mt. D. K. station last night, crushed into the ladies' waiting room and instantly killed six persons. Five others were fatally hurt. The accident was caused by the engineer being overcome by the rush by the blowing out of a pipe. The train was running at a high rate of speed at the time and crashed into the depot.

SAMPSON IS INDICTED.

The Federal Grand Jury sitting at Jacksonville yesterday indicted John Sampson, the confessed yeggmen, on the charge of being implicated in the Daytona postoffice robbery.

BIG SUCCESS WAS BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Congregational church made a great success of their bazaar and supper which were held yesterday afternoon and evening. Their fancy articles were artistic and attractive and while the ladies did not sell out entirely they sold sufficient to raise quite a fund.

Their supper was pronounced by everybody to be both sumptuous and appetizing and those who ate say they enjoyed a rare treat.

The orange blossoms, flowers and homemade candies were in demand and helped to swell the funds. All in all the ladies may feel proud of their success.

Notwithstanding the various and varied amusements offered to the public this week the 'Gator Theatre is being well attended, owing largely to the appearance at that place of the celebrated Pepper Twins. Those who have seen this act speak very highly of it, the dancing being particularly good.

Mrs. E. S. Raynor returned North today to visit with her daughter, leaving Mr. Raynor, who dreaded returning home so early to spend a longer time at The Bennett, where they have been guests while in Daytona. Mr Raynor is a cousin of C. H. Raynor, of Daytona Beach, and Mrs. W. B. Chittenden, of North Ridgewood avenue.

He Was Very Charitable.

Among the features of a charity bazaar held in London was a refreshment stall, to which charitable donors contributed supplies, thus enabling all the takings to represent clear profits. The lady in charge requested a gift for this purpose from a well known and wealthy gentleman in the city, but one not famous for "parting." To her surprise she received next day a note to the effect that he was sending her a sirloin of beef and two ox tongues.

The same morning the lady happened to go to her butcher (who was also the butcher of Mr. X.), and, after giving him a large order for her stall, asked him if he would like himself to give anything.

"I should very much, ma'am," replied the worthy tradesman, "but I yesterday gave to Mr. X., at his request for this purpose, a sirloin of beef and three ox tongues."

Net gain to Mr. X.: One ox tongue and a cheap reputation for charity!—London Standard.

A Surprise For the Thief.

Herr Hager, a rich and influential banker, frequently had watches picked from his pocket. At first he had recourse to all kinds of safety chains; then one morning he took no precaution whatever and quietly allowed himself to be robbed. At night, on returning from his business, he took up the evening paper; he uttered an exclamation of delight. A watch had exploded in a man's hands. The victim's hands were shattered and the left eye destroyed. The crafty banker had filled the watch case with dynamite, which exploded in the operation of winding.—London Telegraph.

AUTOMOBILE PARADE WEDNESDAY.

send in your name to Chairman White and he will issue you a card, giving you place and number in the parade. This is important in order to systematize matters and prevent any hitch.

The parade ground has been mapped out as follows: From the City Hall they will move South on Beach to Bellevue; West on Bellevue to Ridgewood; North on Ridgewood to Fairview; East on Fairview to Beach; South on Beach to Volusia; West on Volusia to Palmetto; South on Palmetto to Orange; East on Orange to South Bride; thence to Peninsula; North by Peninsula drive to Seabreeze avenue; East on Seabreeze avenue to Grandview; North to Ocean boulevard; West on Ocean boulevard to Valley street; South on Valley street to Seabreeze avenue, thence to Automobile Club House by Peninsula Drive and Halifax avenue.

If everybody with automobiles respond to this invitation the parade will be one of the most imposing spectacles ever witnessed in this part of Florida—in all Florida for that matter. It will make a parade miles in length and ought to give lots of snap and go to the big carnival.

DEATH IN ITS PATH.

[By United Press]

MONTREAL, March 17—A fast Boston & Maine train jumped the track at the B. & M. station here today, crashed into the ladies' waiting room and instantly killed six persons. Five others were fatally hurt. The accident was caused by the engineer being thrown out of the cab by the blowing out of a plug. The train ran a mile with no one at the throttle and then crashed into the depot.
